

Our Motto and our vision for 2018 at St Martin's

This motto verse from Colossians reminds us of the things we pray will be true of each of us at St Martin's in 2018:

- a passionate commitment to knowing Jesus and making him known
- a joyful commitment to building a church community characterised by loving relationships
- a compassionate commitment to transforming for good the places where we live and work